Contents of Volume 6, 1994

Number 1 January–March

Rural small-scale industries in a developing region: sign of poverty or progress? A case study in Ciomas Subdistrict, West-Java Province, Indonesia 1
Tulus Tambunan

Entrepreneurship, small- and medium-sized enterprises in Northern Hungary 15
Gyula Fülöp

Environments for business deregistrations in the United Kingdom, 1987–1990 29
Paul Westhead and Sue Birley

Regional differences in small firm entry in manufacturing industries: Lower Saxony, 1979–1991 63
Knut Gerlach and Joachim Wagner

Flexibility and specialization in question; birth, growth and death rates of Cambridge new technology-based firms 1988–92 81
E. W. Garnsey, S. C. Galloway and S. H. Mathisen

Announcement 109

Number 2 April–June

Entrepreneurship and leadership: the implications for education and development 111
Richard T. Harrison and Claire M. Leitch

An analysis of the changes in the knitwear/clothing district of Carpi during the 1980s 127
D. Bigarelli and P. Crestanello

The characteristics of high-technology manufacturing firms in a declining industrial region: an empirical analysis from western New York 145
Bidhan Chandra and Alan D. MacPherson

Regional development: who are the problem owners? 161
Henrik Herlau and Helge Tetzschner

Spectator communities and entrepreneurial districts 177
Peer Hull Kristensen

Announcement 199

Number 3 July–September

Contribution of telecommunications to rural economic development: variations on a theme? 201
Andrew Gillespie, Michael Coombes and Simon Raybould

Information technology and rural development: unique opportunity or potential threat? 219
Seamus Grimes and Gerry Lyons

Developing creative business insights: serendipity and its potential in entrepreneurship 239
William E. Martello

Teleconferencing business forums: an approach to linking entrepreneurs and potential investors 259
Jeffrey S. Bracker, G. H. van Clouse and Rebecca A. Thacker

Sources of finance for UK venture capital funds: the role of corporate investors 275
Kevin N. McNally

Announcement 299

Number 4 October–December

Relationships among small business support agencies 301
Stanley Cromie and Sue Birley

Technologist-entrepreneurs versus non-entrepreneurial technologists: analysis of motivational triggering factors 315
Erkko Autio and Ilkka Kauranen

Beyond anarchy and organization: entrepreneurs in contextual networks 329
Bengt Johannisson, Ola Alexanderson, Krzysztof Nowicki and Knut Senneseth

Development of new ventures over time: strategy, profitability and growth in new Scandinavian firms 357
Bjørn Olsen and Lars Kolvereid

The industrial district of Lecco: innovation and transformation processes 371
Gioacchino Garofoli

Author index 395